Washington Business Journal Names Koniag Information Security Services to List of Top 25 Small Tech Companies

The Washington Business Journal named Koniag Information Security Services (KSS) to its list of Top Small Technology Companies for the Washington, D.C. region for the second consecutive year. KSS climbed eight spots from last year to come in at #15 in 2015.

This is the second honor KSS has received in 2015. In March, KSS was named one of the Washington Business Journal's Top Minority-Owned Businesses for the D.C. metropolitan area.
